Paths International Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Annual Report on China's Economic Growth: 2010-2011, Liuxia Hui, Ping Zhang, This book is an original title from China and it is written in Chinese. This specialist work takes a close look at three interconnected subjects: China's current economic growth, a brand-new development valuation system for China's various provinces and regions, plus the major problems confronting China during the Twelfth-five-year plan period. Section one outlines both the major global and Chinese economic developments in 2010, and examines the prospects for further growth in 2011. Section two builds the case for a new development potentiality valuation system for Chinese provinces, autonomous regions and municipalities (an improved version of the 2010 Sustainable Development Valuation System). Section three offers in-depth analyzes and commentary on the major problems confronting China during the Twelfth-five-year plan period. This is an invaluable analysis for economists and policy makers keen to learn about and learn from how China designs and implements workable strategies for sustained growth.
