Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Seventh Triennial Gathering of the Poor-Poore Family: At Andover, Mass;, August 30, 1899 On Wednesday the 30th day of August, 1899, a beautiful day towards the close of the summer season, was held in Andover, Massachusetts, the Seventh Triennial Gathering of our Poor-Poore Family Association, a gathering of charming beauty and interest to all who were present and partook of its fraternal spirit. On this, as on similar occasions in the past there were gathered from near and from far, from store, office, school, pulpit, mill and farm, in goodly numbers those who glory in the name or blood of Poor. And here in old Andover, amidst scenes, though familiar to us all, yet dear to every New England heart, we spent a day long to be remembered. Here we renewed old acquaintances, formed new friendships, while the hand of kinship was extended without formality. And whether engaged in social converse or taking part in the proceedings of the day, or as one family at the noon hour, with thankful hearts for our many blessings we gathered around the festal board, there breathed through it all, the spirit of brotherly love. This gathering was made especially pleasant by the presence of many of the Little family, who are the descendants of Alice Poor, wife of George Little; while they have always been eligible to membership in the Association and welcome to its gatherings, yet on this occasion a special invitation was extended to them, and four of that branch of the family were placed on the Executive Committee. And to them, and to all cousins, who share with us the same blood and origin,...
