General Accounting Office, 2002 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)54472334 Subject: Contracting out -- United States. Excerpt: . . . effectiveness of agency programs, the impact on affected federal employees, and any lessons learned as a result of the use of this process together with any recommendations for appropriate legislation. GAO would review each of these OMB reports and provide its independent assessment to the Congress. The Panel anticipates that OMB would use the results of its reviews to make any needed mid-course corrections. On the basis of the results generated during the demonstration period, and on the reports submitted by OMB and GAO, the Congress will then be in a position to determine the need for any additional legislation. The federal government is in a time of transition, and we face a range of Conclusions st challenges in the 21 century. This will require the federal government to transform what it does, the way that it does business, and who does the st governments business in the 21 century. This may require changes in many areas, including human capital and sourcing strategies. On the basis of our statutory mandate, the Commercial Activities Panel primarily focused on the sourcing aspects of this needed transformation. I supported the adoption of the set of principles as well as the package of additional recommendations contained in the Panels report. Overall, I believe that the findings and recommendations contained in the Panels report represent a reasoned, reasonable, fair, and balanced approach to addressing this important, complex, and controversial area. I hope that the Congress and the Administration will consider and act on this report and its recommendations in a timely manner. I particularly want to...
