Lucid Books, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .On January 15, 2002, this man s car flipped 5 times, his wife died, his skull cracked open. but he was rescued. Join Jason Mirikitani on his miraculous real-life journey that is both heart-wrenching and heart-warming. as he re-learned faith in a God that was present when He seemed most absent, hope in a God when He seemed most unreliable, and love for a God that seemed to leave him in the dark. This unbelievable story will grab you and not let you go. and leave you at the end with a refreshed sense of newness and trust in a faithful God. --- RECOMMENDATIONS/ENDORSEMENTS: It is almost unbearable to go through some of life s challenges, wondering how God will allow certain tragedy into our lives. Be inspired by the Lord s unveiling of his perfect plan through life and death. In this case, we ve personally seen the blessing. Albert Deidre Pujols - St. Louis Cardinals -- In ways beyond the explanations of reason, when pain meets faith -- faith can grow. When tragedy took his beloved, Jason Mirikitani struggled with loss, grief, loneliness, anger and what to believe. His journey past the tragedy at Mile Marker 825 led him through each and into the joys of a faith that first comforted, then strengthened and, finally, renewed. Mile Marker 825 is about terrible heartbreak and life-giving hope. Dr. Bryan Chapell - President, Covenant Theological Seminary -- In your hands, you have an inspiring, challenging and honest story by a man who has lived out one of the biggest fears we all face. This is a story of death and pain, of hope and healing. Jason shares...
