 Julie Randolph, a writer for an independent newspaper, makes the enlightening journey back into the real world, through single motherhood and not letting life s tests get the best of her. A strong believer that, We are not products of what has been done to us rather we are products of what we choose to do for ourselves. On any particular day, our current love situation may fail! Then what? The statistical realism is that more than one-half of all marriages and relationships end in divorce and the obvious realism is that modern technology is as responsible for couples experiencing marital infidelity as it is for bringing couples together. Love is as necessary to humans as sun and water are to flowers. Life must be filled with love, but it has to be the right love or it doesn t grow and thrive. Flowers that receive either too much or too little water and sun do not survive. Humans...
