He was old enough to remember the Cuban Missile Crisis from the 1960s and, although just a little boy then, he remembered the common focus on civil defense and emergency preparedness that was expected in a self reliant society. In addition, his father had taught him that you can t always rely on someone else to take care of you and your family. As time passed, society seemed to lose focus and began to label those that were prepared as radicals, yet Greg remembered the lessons of the past and when nuclear war came to America, he was ready. ABOUT THE AUTHOR Jerry D Young was born at home, in Senath, Missouri July 3, 1953. At age 5 the family rented a small farm house on an active farm 40 miles southwest of St. Louis. While the family weren t farmers, they lived something of a homestead type life, raising a milk cow, sometimes two, and calves, a pig or two, chickens, and the occasional goat. Along with the stock, a large garden helped to feed Jerry s three brothers and two sisters for several years. Fishing and hunting contributed to the pantry, as did foraging the wild edibles on the property. At the age of 14, the family, minus a brother and two sisters that were now adults and on their own, moved back to Senath. Having been encouraged from an early age to read, Jerry was a regular patron of the Senath Branch Library. A love of a good story was born within him, and shortly before graduating high school, for a lack of...
