

From Wonso Pond: A Korean Novel

By Kang Kyong-ae

Feminist Press at The City University of New York. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, From Wonso Pond: A Korean Novel, Kang Kyong-ae, A classic revolutionary novel of the 1930s and the first complete work written by a woman before the Korean War to be published in English. The book transforms the love triangle between these three protagonists into a revealing portrait of the living conditions that led to modern Korea, both North and South. 'A fatherless young girl now poised to become the victim of [the landlord's] lecherous fangs and paws' begins one of the original newspaper teasers describing 'The Country and the City' and the fate of its heroine Sonbi. In a plot rich with Dickensian overtones, the novel paints a vivid picture of life in what is now North Korea through the eyes of Sonbi, her rustic childhood neighbor, Ch'otchae, and a restless law student, Sinch'ol, as they journey separately from a small, impoverished village ruled by the lecherous and baron to the port city of Inch'on. But life is hardly easier there, as Sonbi wears herself out boiling silk threads twelve hours a day while Ch'otchae and Sinch'ol load rice on the docks. All three become...
