Jewish Lights Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Creative Aging: Rethinking Retirement and Non-Retirement in a Changing World, Marjory Zoet Bankson, Individually and culturally, we are at a crossroads in how we view aging and retirement. The traditional image of a quiet, laid-back retirement is shifting. Many approaching retirement age are realizing they will need to work longer than they had expected. At the same time, many are looking for ways they can offer their gifts and experience in a meaningful way. Marjory Zoet Bankson proposes that, if our older years are to have meaning and purpose, we need to address two key questions: "What is my unique gift?" and "What is my legacy?" In Creative Aging, Bankson explores the spiritual dimension of discovering our unique answers and offers creative ways to nourish our calling, particularly where society does not yet have the organizational structures to support these productive energies. Illustrated by stories of people who have reinvented their lives as they age, the book is organized around Bankson's cycle of call: [[Resist: Feeling lost in a new terrain [[Reclaim: Discovering gifts.
